

ONE DAY IN FRÉJUS

TO SEE / TO DO

- The cathedral and the cloister : exceptional monuments.
- Roman amphitheatre, aqueduct and theatre: Roman remains.
 - Villa Aurélienne : built in 19th century, italian Renaissance inspiration.
- Chapelle Cocteau : draws of a poet and other artists works, beautiful set of lights through stained-glass.
- Fréjus city center
- Archeological museum: history, urban planning, economy and daily life of Roman era.
- Museum of local history: histories of Provence and Fréjus in the 19th and 20th centuries.
 - Port Fréjus: stroll, watch the fireworks, boat trip with La Brigante
 - Base nature beach: big parking, playgrounds, sandy beach and handiplaye.

Good addresses:

La Bodega (Port Fréjus): Tapas et spanish cuisine

Glacier Ness (Port Fréjus): best ice creams

La Plage : restaurant on the beach, perfect for fireworks evenings

7th Heaven (rooftop) for a drink

CONSEILS ET INFOS

Market on Wednesday and Saturday.

To visit Roman remains, book a guided tour with Fréjus tourist office (included in Pass Côte d'Azur).

Hiking :

- Barrage de Malpasset
- Mont Vinaigre tour for a beautiful view
- Avellan lake, in low season

Parkings :

In city center, parkings Aubenas, Agricola ou Clos de la Tour, payable 1.60€/hour, 30 min free.

Base nature beach, parking payable from 1st July to 31 August 1.60€/hour, 30 min free.

You can go to the city center and the beach on a bike from the campsite, ask the reception for itinerary. There is no bike path in Puget sur Argens, so it is not recommend to do this trip with children.